To: Members, Subcommittee on Agriculture, Energy and Trade

From: Scott Tipton, Chairman

Date: June 13, 2013

The Committee on Small Business Subcommittee on Agriculture, Energy and Trade will meet for a hearing titled, The New Domestic Energy Paradigm: Potential Benefits for Small Businesses and the Economy. The hearing is scheduled to begin at 10:00 a.m. on June 20, 2013 in Room 2360 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

The advent of new technologies and changes to market fundamentals have greatly increased the oil and natural gas production potential of the United States. The purpose of the hearing is to examine the economic benefits of increased oil and natural gas production to the United States, with a special emphasis on how these benefits, and associated jobs created, could accrue to small businesses.

A staff briefing will be held on Monday, June 17, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. in Room 2360 of the Rayburn House Office Building

If you or any of your staff has any questions, please call Mark Ratto or Joe Hartz with the Committee at 202-225-5821.
